Although there were many people in the city on Tuesday, and hundreds of autos were whizzing about, there were very few accidents, the only bad one learned of, occurring out of the circus zone. About 7.30 o'clock Mrs. Frank Mackie of the Otrobando road had the electric car stop in front of the Norwich Town Congregational church. As she alighted she stepped out into the road and was hit by an automobile belonging to Mr. Geisthardt of Preston, a lumberman.

As Mrs. Mackie left the car she stepped suddenly into the road, it is said, and the driver did not see her until she was struck. She was knocked down and hadly bruised besides being frightened. Mr. Geisthardt stopped his machine at once and Mrs. Mackie was picked up and taken to her home in the Otrobando road in the machine.

TOOK $5 IN MONEY. Home of A. E. Henry Entered While Family Was Out.

The loss of $5 through a sneak thief vas reported to the police on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur E. Henry, who occupies the upper ten-ement at No. 111 Roath street. The money was stolen while Mrs. Henry and the family down stairs had gone out to see the circus parade. Entrance to the Henry tenement was gained by using one of the two keys that Mrs. Henry had put into a cont pocket that hung outside the door when she left the house to go to see the parade. She found the key on the floor when she returned. The money that was stolen had been saved by the children who expected to use it to go to the circus.

It is thought that someone may have seen Mrs. Henry putting the key into the coat pocket and slipped into the house when they saw their chance while both families were away from the house.
